

ConSoil Conference, Milan, Italy 3-6- June 2008

Italian Satellite Conference

In cooperation between Provincia of Milano and Sapienza University of Rome
June 4th 2008, 9.00-13.30

Environmental and economic requalification of contaminated sites in Italy: experiences and perspectives in the frame of recent environmental laws

8.30 - 9.00 Participants' registration

9.00-9.20 Welcome and opening section

Bruna Brembilla - Environ Councillor of Provincia di Milano
Dott. Gianfranco Mascazzini, General Director of the Quality of life Department of Environment and Territory Defense Ministry
Ing. Daniele Montecchio, from Ministry for the Economical Development

9.20-11.00 Session 1. Principles, experiences and perspectives

Moderators: Dr.ssa Cristina Melchiorri, Central Director of Environment Department of Provincia di Milano
Prof. Mauro Majone, University "La Sapienza" di Roma

- The recent national rules on remediation and environmental liability
Doc. Stefano Leoni from the Ministry of Environment
- Role of the remediation of contaminated sites for the quantitative and qualitative protection of water resources.
Professor Enrico Rolle, coordinator of the technical secretary of the Ministry of Environment .
- Role of the remediation for the industrial re-conversion of contaminated sites of public interest.
Dr. Gianni Squitieri, Sviluppo Italia Attività Produttive (Development of Productive Activities in Italy)
- Experience and initiatives of private enterprise in the economical and productive requalification of contaminated sites. Doc. Gian Antonio Saggese, Confindustria (Industrial association)
- German experience in the contaminated 'megsites' remediation and requalification.
Doc. Martin Keil, from Saxonian State Authority.

11.00-11.20 Discussion

11.20-12.40 Session 2 Technical and scientific issues

Moderators: Virginio Pedrazzi – Coordinator of the Garbage and Remediation Department

- Containment of groundwater contamination: technical-economical analysis of the different alternatives.
Prof. Gian Pietro Beretta, Milan State University.
- Technical guidelines for the appropriate site-specific management of remediation.
Eng. Arru Leonardo, Responsible of the Environmental Emergencies Service of APAT
- Remediation seen on the point of view of public health protection and environmental liability.
Doc. Loredana Musmeci, ISS
- The open issue of "in situ technologies": how to overcome cultural, administrative and technical barriers toward a more sustainable approach to site remediation.
Doc. Giuseppe Mininni, Earth and Environment Department of CNR.

- Role of international cooperation for the scientific research and the technological handover: case study from the bilateral Germany-Italy TRANS-IT project.
Prof. Dahmke, Kiel University, TRANS-IT project.

12.40-13.00 Discussion

14.00-18.00 Free participation to CONSOIL workshop